The Southern Tier Chapter of the NYSSCPA Young CPAs presents

“Identifying and Working with your Archetypes”

Margaret is a Workplace and Life Coach and Archetypal Counselor in Ithaca, New York. She has given archetypal workshops to professional organizations, companies, women’s groups and local venues. Having worked in the corporate sector for four decades, Margaret is particularly in tune with the need for a method of identifying and working with a variety of personalities. Margaret introduces her audience to the powerful language of archetypes, and how they enhance performance and success in all areas of personal and professional life.

The knowledge Margaret imparts supports team building, professional development, and is a great addition to any business strategy.
